

The Canadian Vascular Access Association National Conference Bursary

CVAA is offering 5 (five) bursaries for CVAA members to attend the National Conference in Montreal, Quebec from May 9 -11, 2012.

These bursaries are in line with CVAA's value statement "to advance evidence-based best practice in vascular access".

Attendance at the CVAA National Conference will provide the opportunity for professionals to enhance their knowledge in vascular access and infusion therapy.

Amount: Each bursary is in the amount of up to $1,000.00 and can be used for the conference registration fee, travel and/or hotel costs. Original receipts are required for reimbursement and must be submitted to the CVAA office by June 15, 2012. Reimbursement will be issued within 14 days of receiving original receipts.

Selection: A selection committee led by the CVAA Conference Chair and comprised of CVAA National Board members will review applications using a blind review and objective process.

Eligibility: Must be a current CVAA member.

How to apply:

- Complete the CVAA National Conference Bursary Application Form
- Include with the application form an essay (maximum 300 words), describing "the importance of CVAA in advancing education regarding vascular access and infusion therapy to Canadian clinicians".
- Submit the above to the CVAA National office by 4:00 pm EST April 13, 2012.

Successful applicants will be notified on April 20, 2012.

Successful applicants will be required to write a brief summary of their experience at the CVAA Conference for publication in the CVAA Journal.
